

PRIVACY POLICY

Nijsbouman.com (“we”, “us”, “our”) holds a high regard for data protection and privacy. In the following we provide a detailed description of how we treat your data and personal information. Nijsbouman.com is the data controller and processor of any personal information you provide us with. By using this site you agree to the processing of the personal information you provide.

What personal data do we process?

We collect data necessary to fulfill our contractual obligation of sending the item(s) to you, e.g. address, name, and email address.

Like many other companies we also collect “log data” while you visit our site, e.g. IP-address, behavior on the website (such as which item you look at) and other data that you voluntarily provide. This log data will be deleted after our contract with you comes to an end (the two year warranty period). This data is collected in order for us to see what type of people enjoy our watches, so we can be more effective in our marketing. We will not try to collect data that you or your browser does not voluntarily provide.

Below a list with the rights you hold as a customer and a citizen of the European Union.

Your rights:

The right to erase: you may contact us at any time to delete any personal information that we have stored about you.

The right to rectification: you have the right to rectification of any false information stored about you.

The right to access: you have the right to access and see any information we have stored about you.

The right to object: to certain processing activities conducted by us in relation to your personal data, such as our processing of your personal data based on our legitimate interest. The right to object also applies to the processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes.

If you would like to exercise any of your rights, please send an email to: nijsbouman@hotmail.com.

Cookies:

As part of our approach to providing personalized services on our website, we use cookies to store and sometimes track information about you. A cookie is a small data file sent to your browser from a web server, which is stored on your device that allows easier access the next time the same page is visited. For example, a cookie is sent when you sign up to download products or information on our website. If you do not want your personal information to be stored by cookies, you can configure your browser so that it notifies you whenever a cookie is received. This way you can decide each time to accept cookies or not. However, the use of cookies may be necessary to provide certain features and choosing to reject cookies may reduce the functionality of our website. Your browser should include precise instructions explaining how to control the acceptance of cookies. Some of the cookies used by us will immediately be deleted when you close your browser (session cookies). Other cookies will remain on your device and allow for the identification of your browser at the next occasion you visit the website (persistent cookies). You can delete all cookies saved on your device or change the settings of your browser to prevent the storage of cookies. If you do this, you may have to reconfigure some settings each time you visit our website. Some of our website's functions may also not be available if you have cookies deactivated.

Social media:

Our website contains links to different social media platforms and other websites. Your visit to our website will not cause data to be transmitted to any social media platform or other websites. You will however be forwarded to the respective websites if you click on one of the external links on our website. These other websites may collect and process your data under their own terms and conditions of use, which you may review directly on the respective website. We recommend to review the data protection statements of the respective service or website and the above declaration of consent before making a decision to access or use any such website or service. We have no control over the nature and extent of data processing conducted by operators of external websites.

We may update our privacy policy from time to time and will post the updated version on our website. You are advised to visit our privacy policy periodically for any changes.
